Dear DR Selvinkumar,

I have got all pat and praise for the excellent arrangement and management of the function on 19.2.2014 at Koyambedu, Chennai, for which you are mainly responsible. I really enjoyed your speech coupled with your various efforts employed in organising the promotion and propagation of Tamil. Hats off to your work done so far and the future plan action in this connection. I still remember your impressive personality not only in appearance but also in action.

Besides, the very purpose of venturing to write a letter is to appreciate about your booklet on " A Future of Promise " which was given to me during the function. I could go through it after reaching home.

Your impressions and observations about of our Hon'ble Chief Minister of Tamil Nadu is only an illustration but not an exaggeration. As a person closely associated with our Hon'ble AMMA for years, I can easily vouch that you are absolutely right in writing about our Hon'ble AMMA. The varied aspects of her has been well narrated briefly and carefully in an impressive way for which you are known. As such, you deserve one more congratulation. I hasten to pray the Almighty to shower on you all His grace for a healthy, prosperous and progressive life.

Yours sincerely,

Regards

(DR K. MALAISAMY) 20/2/14
